

The Healing of Bartimaeus

Once upon a time, in the ancient city of Jericho, there was a blind man named Bartimaeus. He sat by the roadside every day, begging for money and hoping for a miracle.

Bartimaeus had heard stories about Jesus and the amazing miracles he performed, and he believed that Jesus could heal him too.

One day, as Bartimaeus was sitting by the road, he heard a large crowd approaching. He asked what was happening, and someone told him, "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by."

Filled with hope and excitement, Bartimaeus began to shout, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Many people in the crowd told him to be quiet, but Bartimaeus shouted even louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Jesus heard Bartimaeus' cries and stopped. He said, "Call him here." So the people called to Bartimaeus, "Cheer up! On your feet! He's calling you."

Throwing his cloak aside, Bartimaeus jumped to his feet and came to Jesus. Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?"

Bartimaeus replied, "Rabbi, I want to see."

Jesus said, "Go, your faith has healed you." Immediately, Bartimaeus received his sight and followed Jesus along the road, praising God. The people who witnessed this miracle were amazed and also praised God for His goodness.

Bartimaeus' life was changed forever. He no longer had to beg by the roadside. Instead, he became a follower of Jesus, sharing his story with everyone he met and telling them about the wonderful things Jesus had done for him.
